Counselling for Toads is the story of Toad (of Toad Hall) who has fallen into depression and the journey he goes on when he undertakes counselling. I tend to like this kind of book, those that help you or teach you something but by using the hook of a fairy story or using well loved characters to make some of the concepts easier to digest and this does the same thing.

Each chapter is devoted to one of Toad's counselling sessions with Heron. The method used by Heron is 'transactional analysis'. Toad learns that he has suppressed the anger he felt as a child and therefore Heron helps him through a process of reflection and change to recognise and discard the Child Ego State that Toad is constantly in and make positive progress in his life.
