Paper Plate Hats This easy safari hat craft is appropriate for kids. Make the basic structure of the hat by cutting the center out of a paper plate, and covering the hole with an upside-down paper bowl. Glued together, the paper plate looks like the brim of the safari hat, and the bowl looks like the rounded top of the hat.

This charming version of a well-known chant takes place on the African savanna. In this beautifully illustrated rendition of a well-known children's chant, two sisters are looking not for a bear but for a lion—a lion that lives on the African savanna, where the girls go through swishy-swashy long grass, a splishy-splashy lake, and a Big Dark Cave. When they finally meet their lion, they have to run, run, run

One of the biggest challenges for worship leaders and educators is coming up with ideas for including children in worship. These books provide a whole year's worth of activities and ideas complete with artwork and visual aids. The activities have been developed and used in an Anglican parish (Church of England) over the last eight years by a professional educator, artist, and experienced children's minister. The worship outlines include simple children's liturgies and a complete lesson or story plan that harmonizes with the lectionary. Through fun ideas, children encounter a real aspect of the Christian faith focused on a theme from each Sunday's Gospel. Each outline includes a
