~~Role of Women in the Family and Society~~

Land is perhaps the most important economic asset; women account for only 12.8 per cent of agricultural landholders in the world. Women and girls suffer most from the dearth of safely managed water and sanitation. Women and girls are responsible for water collection in 80 per cent of households without access to water on premises. Menstrual hygiene management is difficult in the absence of water, soap and gender-responsive sanitation facilities, whether at home, school or work.

significant economic cost as it hinders productivity and economic growth globally, countries are losing $160 trillion in wealth because of differences in lifetime earnings between women and men. In addition, an IMF staff note paper showed that the obstacles to women entering the labour market have more economic cost than was believed to be the case, and benefits from reducing the barrier of gender inequality are likely to be larger than initially thought.

~~Family economics - Wikipedia~~

Women's economic empowerment is affected by economic policies, including how governments raise and spend taxes, and shape trade and investment deals. This is because these policies have a direct impact on the quality and availability of public services, which women are dependent on because of their unpaid care work, and which are vital in tackling violence against women and girls .
